7. An Individual who wishes to initiate an appeal beyond the fourteen (14) day period may only do so if exceptional circumstances prevented them from filing their appeal within the deadline indicated in Section 6 above. Any such Individual must provide a written request stating the reasons for which they are seeking an exemption. The decision to allow, or not allow, an appeal outside of the fourteen (14) day period will be at the sole discretion of the Appeal Manager.

Grounds for Appeal

8. A decision cannot be appealed on its merits alone or because an Individual (or Individuals) do not like or agree with a decision. An appeal may only be heard if there are sufficient grounds for appeal. Sufficient grounds include the Respondent:

<sup>1</sup> Freestyle Canada may notify decisions via the following means: email to the Individual's most recent email address that it has on file; publication on Freestyle Canada's website, or other electronic means that permit direct communication with the Individual, such as WhatsApp. In such circumstances, notification shall be deemed to have been received on the date that Freestyle Canada publishes notification of the decision on its website and/or, as applicable, the date on which the Individual is sent the decision via email or the other electronic means.

- a) Made a decision that it did not have the authority or jurisdiction (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents) to make;
  - b) Failed to follow its own procedures (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents);
  - c) Made a decision that was influenced by bias (where bias is defined as a lack of neutrality to such an extent that the decision-maker appears not to have considered other views); or
  - d) Made a decision that was grossly unreasonable or unfair.
9. The Appellant must demonstrate, on a balance of probabilities, that the Respondent has made a procedural error as described in Section 8 of this Policy and that this error had, or may reasonably have had, a material effect on the decision or decision-maker.
  10. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Appeal Policy, by agreement between all of the Parties, the internal appeal process in relation to decisions made by Freestyle Canada, a Case Manager, Appeal Manager or a discipline panel appointed by Freestyle Canada may be bypassed, and the appeal may be heard directly before the SDRCC.
  11. Except where an appeal proceeds before the SDRCC, Freestyle Canada shall appoint an Appeal Manager and shall follow the process outlined in Sections 12 and following of this Appeal Policy.

Screening of Appeal

12. Upon receipt of an appeal, Freestyle Canada will appoint an independent Appeal Manager (who must not be in a conflict of interest or have any direct relationship with the Parties) who has the following responsibilities:
  - a) To determine if the appeal falls under the scope of this Policy (Sections 2-5)
  - b) To determine if the appeal was submitted in a timely manner (Sections 6 and 7)
  - c) To decide whether there are sufficient grounds for the appeal (Section 8)
13. If the Appeal Manager denies the appeal on the basis of insufficient grounds, because it was not submitted in a timely manner, or because it did not fall under the scope of this Policy, the Appellant will be notified, in writing, of the reasons for this decision.
14. If the Appeal Manager accepts an appeal because it falls under the scope of this Policy, there are sufficient grounds and it was submitted in a timely manner, the Appeal Manager will notify the Parties of their decision in writing and will follow the steps described hereunder.

Appointment of Appeal Panel

15. If an appeal is accepted, the Appeal Manager will appoint an appeal panel which shall consist of a single member to hear the appeal. However, at the discretion of the Appeal Manager, an appeal panel composed of three members may be appointed to hear the appeal. In this event, the Appeal Manager will appoint one of the panel's members to serve as the chair.
16. When appointing the appeal panel, the Appeal Manager must select individuals who are impartial, free from any real or perceived conflict of interest (and who shall remain so until a final decision has been rendered or the proceedings have otherwise finally terminated), and who do not have any direct relationship with any of the Parties. Although not a strict requirement, the Appeal Manager should attempt to appoint individuals to the appeal panel who have a legal background and who understand the sport of freestyle skiing. When justified by the circumstances, the Appeal

Manager may appoint individuals to the appeal panel who have specific areas of expertise that would assist in resolving the matter.

Determination of Affected Parties

17. In order to confirm the identification of any Affected Parties, the Appeal Manager will engage Freestyle Canada. The Appeal Manager may determine whether a Party is an Affected Party in their sole discretion.

Procedure for Appeal Hearing

18. The Appeal Manager shall notify the Parties that the appeal will be heard. The Appeal Manager, in collaboration with the appeal panel, shall then decide the format under which the appeal will be heard. This decision is at the sole discretion of the Appeal Manager and may not be appealed.
19. If a Party chooses not to participate in the hearing, the hearing will proceed in any event.
20. The format of the hearing may involve an oral in-person hearing, an oral hearing by telephone or other electronic means, a hearing based on a review of documentary evidence submitted in advance of the hearing, a hearing based on documentary submissions alone, or a combination of these methods. The hearing will be governed by the procedures that the Appeal Manager and the appeal panel deem appropriate in the circumstances, provided that:
  - a) The hearing will be held in a timely manner within a timeline determined by the Appeal Manager
  - b) The Parties will be given reasonable notice of the day, time and place of an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
  - c) Copies of any written documents which the Parties wish to have the appeal panel consider will be provided to all Parties in advance of the hearing
  - d) The Parties may be accompanied by a representative, advisor, translator, transcription services, or legal counsel at their own expense
  - e) The appeal panel may request that any other individual participate and give evidence at an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
  - f) The appeal panel may exclude any evidence filed by the Parties that is unduly repetitious or otherwise an abuse of process. The appeal panel shall otherwise apply relevant and applicable evidentiary rules in relation to the admissibility and weight given to any evidence filed by the Parties
  - g) Nothing is admissible in evidence at a hearing that:
    - i. would be inadmissible in a court by reason of any privilege under the law of evidence; or
    - ii. is inadmissible by any statute.
  - h) Any Affected Party shall be permitted to make submissions and file evidence before the appeal panel. The appeal panel's decision is binding on any Affected Party
  - i) The decision to uphold or reject the appeal will be by a majority vote of the appeal panel members, except in cases where the panel consists of a single member
21. In fulfilling its duties, the appeal panel may obtain independent advice.

Appeal Decision

22. The appeal panel shall issue its decision, in writing and with reasons, within fourteen (14) days after the hearing's conclusion. In making its decision, the appeal panel will have no greater authority than that of the original decision-maker. The appeal panel may decide to:
  - a) Reject the appeal and confirm the decision being appealed
  - b) Uphold the appeal, in whole or in part, and refer the matter back to the initial decision-maker for a new decision
  - c) Uphold the appeal, in whole or in part, and vary the decision
  - d) Determine whether costs of the appeal, excluding legal fees and legal disbursements of any Parties, may be assessed against any Party. In assessing costs, the appeal panel will take into account the nature and amount of the costs, the outcome of the appeal, the conduct of the Parties, and the Parties' respective financial resources
23. The appeal panel's written decision, with reasons, will be distributed to all Parties, the Appeal Manager, and Freestyle Canada. In extraordinary circumstances, the appeal panel may first issue a verbal or summary decision soon after the hearing's conclusion, with the full written decision to be issued thereafter.
24. Subject to Section 26 below, unless the matter involves a Vulnerable Participant, once the deadline to appeal to the SDRCC (where applicable), as indicated in the Canadian Sport Dispute Resolution Code, has expired, Freestyle Canada shall publish the outcome of the appeal on their website. Publication shall be limited to, where applicable, the provision(s) of any relevant policies that have been violated, the name(s) of the Individual(s) involved, the sanction(s) or order imposed, if any. Additionally, where Freestyle Canada acts as the Complainant under Section 10 of the Discipline and Complaints Policy and any decision issued pursuant to that Policy is appealed, only Freestyle Canada, and not the original Complainant, shall be identified as an involved Individual. Identifying information regarding Minors or Vulnerable Participants will never be published by Freestyle Canada.
25. If the appeal panel dismisses the appeal, the decision may only be published, as provided for in Section 25, with the Respondent's consent. If the Respondent does not provide such consent, the decision will be kept confidential by the Parties, the Appeal Manager and Freestyle Canada and shall be retained and discarded in accordance with the relevant and applicable privacy legislation. Failure to respect this provision may result in disciplinary action being taken pursuant to this Policy.
26. Other individuals or organizations, including but not limited to, Members, shall be advised of the outcome of any decisions rendered in accordance with this Policy.
27. Any decision rendered pursuant to this Policy shall apply automatically to and must be respected by Freestyle Canada and its Members.
28. Records of all decisions will be maintained by Freestyle Canada and its Members in accordance with their respective privacy policies.
29. The appeal panel's decision is final and binding on the Parties, subject to their right to appeal the decision before the SDRCC. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Canadian Sport Dispute Resolution Code, appeals must be filed with the SDRCC within 14 days of receipt of the appealing Party's receipt of the appeal panel's decision.

Timelines

30. If the circumstances of the appeal are such that adhering to the timelines outlined by this Policy will not allow a just resolution to the appeal, the Appeal Manager and/or Panel may direct that these timelines be revised.

Confidentiality

31. The appeals process is confidential and involves only the Parties, the Appeal Manager, the appeal panel, and any independent advisors to the panel. Once initiated and until a decision is released, none of the Parties will disclose confidential information to any person not involved in the proceedings.
32. Any failure to respect the aforementioned confidentiality requirement may result in disciplinary action being taken against the Individual(s) in accordance with Freestyle Canada's relevant and applicable policies.

Final and Binding

33. No action or legal proceeding will be commenced against Freestyle Canada or Individuals in respect of a dispute, unless Freestyle Canada has refused or failed to provide or abide by the dispute resolution process and/or appeal process as set out in governing documents.

Privacy

34. The collection, use and disclosure of any personal information pursuant to this Policy is subject to Freestyle Canada's Privacy Policy.
35. Freestyle Canada or any of its delegates pursuant to this Policy (i.e., Appeal Manager, appeal panel), shall comply with Freestyle Canada's Privacy Policy in the performance of their services under this Policy.

<sup>2</sup> For the purpose of calculating deadlines, the following shall apply: the day of the act is not included in the calculation (i.e., the date of receipt of a decision is not Day 1); instead, the deadline would start on the day following receipt of the decision and would expire at midnight (in the location of the individual seeking to file an appeal) on the last day of the period. If the end date is a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday, the period runs until the next day that is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday. For example, if an Individual receives a decision on Thursday December 17, 2020, the 14-day deadline to appeal this decision starts on Friday December 18, 2020 and would expire on Friday January 1, 2021. However, since January 1, 2021 is a legal holiday, January 2, 2021 is a Saturday, and January 3, 2021 is a Sunday, the deadline to appeal would expire at midnight (in the location of the individual seeking to file an appeal) on January 4, 2021.
